

CONTENTS

Page

1. Introduction	3
Aims & Objectives	3
2. What is Mentoring? Key Concepts	5
Background	5
Definition	6
Mentoring v Others Forms of Development	9
3. Five Stages of a Mentoring Programme	10
Stage 1: Laying the Programme's Foundations	11
Organisational Readiness and Context	11
Purpose and Objectives	14
Programme Scope and Resourcing	18
Benefits and Risks	22
Benchmarking	24
Sponsor & Stakeholder Engagement – Gaining Commitment	24
4. Stage 2: Designing and Planning the Programme	28
Defining the Programme Process	28
Identifying Boundaries, Roles and Responsibilities	30
Publicising and Marketing	34
Recruiting Participants	37
Support Systems and Materials	41
5. Stage 3: Launching the Programme	42
Managing Expectations	42
Initial Training and Educating	43
Matching	49
Launching the Programme	56
Administration	57
6. Stage 4: Supporting Participants	59
Key Support Interventions	59
The "Ready Ear"	65
Steering Groups & Mechanisms	67
Continuing Development	69

7. Stage 5: Reviewing and Improving the Programme	72
Ending the Cycle	72
Evaluation and Outcomes	74
Continuous Improvement	77
Extending/Growing the Programme	79
8. Coordinator Roles and Responsibilities	82
Roles, Responsibilities and Profile	82
Administrative Processes and Systems	84
Codes of Conduct	87
Using a Quality Framework	88
9. Key Differentiators of Successful Programmes	90
What Makes Mentoring Programmes Successful?	90
What Can Go Wrong – Avoiding the Worst Pitfalls	91
ISMPE	92
10. Further Information	93
Frequently Asked Questions	93
Reading	95
Websites	97